

QUAYSIDE COMMUNITY AGM

February 5, 2020

Meeting Location: Inn at the Quay
North Ballroom, 900 Quayside Dr., New Westminster

Vickie Turvey chaired the meeting and called it to order at 7 PM.

First guests; Cory Hansen, emergency management office, talked about disaster preparedness and Rob Dick, assistant deputy chief for the fire and rescue services, followed with discussion on evacuation

Second guest; Police dept liaison; Camille Oliviere introduced liaison officer for the Quayside Community; Constable Alec Oprea

Third guest; James McEvoy; Councilor representing the city for the Quayside Community., spoke on the city's seven bold steps for climate change (can be found on line) also discussed with James McEvoy the need for a community centre/meeting rooms for the Quay, hopefully when the west end of the Quay is developed. Also discussion on whether the city would be putting any E V stations at the Quay.

President, Vickie Turvey, spoke on enjoying her involvement with QCB for 4 years and now stepping down.

Treasurer , Maureen Albanese, spoke on QCB membership fee of $1.00 per year with 2230 members, current balance $8,392.19

Discussion followed on the current situation on strata insurance and the need for follow up.

Opened the floor for nominations but as yet no president. Secretary: June Gambrel, Treasurer: Maureen Albanese, Director-at-large; Enzo Guerriero

Meeting adjourned 9 pm